

GRUNWICK

'GET THAT COLOURED ONE'

"All of a sudden I was surrounded by three or four of the beast. They got me by my legs and arms and they got hold of my back too. I was dragged off and thrown into the police van along side this white girl whose head smashed against the van steps. She was lying in the van stunned and crying".

- Flame, July '77